

CURRICULUM VITAE

Erin A. Teaff, Ph.D.

Work Address

Fremouw, Sigley and Baker Psychological
Associates, PLLC
1445 Stewartstown Road
Suite 200
Morgantown, WV 26505

Contact Information

(304) 598-2300
fremouw.sigley.baker@gmail.com

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Major: Counseling Psychology
Degree: Doctorate of Philosophy
Award Date: December 21, 2019
Dissertation: Psychological Trauma and Resilience of Police Officers Involved in an Ambush: An Exploratory Study
Defense: July 2019
Chair: Jeffrey Daniels, Ph.D.

West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Major: Rehabilitation Counseling
Degree: Master of Science
Awarded: August 16, 2013

West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Major: Psychology
Degree: Bachelor of Science
Awarded: August 2009

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Licensed Psychologist; Fremouw, Sigley and Baker Psychological Associates, PLLC, Morgantown, West Virginia

License: WV License #1304
Qualifications: West Virginia Approved Forensic Evaluator
Dates: February 2022 – present
Duties: Conducting individual, group, and family therapy (populations age 7 – adult); Conducting psychological and forensic evaluations with adolescents and adults (i.e., Competency to Proceed to Trial, Juvenile, Parental Fitness, and Risk); Administering, scoring, and report writing of these evaluations.

Supervised-Psychologist; Fremouw, Sigley, and Baker Psychological Associates, PLLC, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: September 2019 – February 2022
Duties: Conducting individual, group, and family therapy (populations age 7 – adult); Conducting psychological and forensic evaluations with adolescents and adults (i.e., Competency to Proceed to Trial, Juvenile, Parental Fitness, and Risk); Administering, scoring, and report writing of these evaluations.
Supervisors: William Fremouw, Ph.D., Edward Baker, Ph.D., & Terry Laurita Sigley, M.A.

Pre-Doctoral Intern; Northeast Florida State Hospital, Macclenny, Florida

Dates: August 2018 – August 2019
Duties: Conducting group therapy (i.e., Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity); Conducting individual therapy with civil and forensic residents (e.g., Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity and Incompetent to Proceed to Trial residents); Conducting forensic evaluations (i.e., Competency to Proceed, Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity); Administering, scoring, and report writing of assessments; Participating in treatment teams; Creating modules for Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity groups; Conducting supervision of a Behavioral Program Specialist; Teaching modules for new employee orientation (i.e., Understanding Mental Illness, Suicide Prevention)
Hours: 2000-hour requirement
Supervisors: Darah Granger, Ph.D., Sierra Trainor, Psy.D., & Jennifer McManus, Ph.D.
Training
Director: Summer Scott, Psy.D.

Practicum Student; Washington and Jefferson College – Student Health, Washington, Pennsylvania

Dates: January 2017 – May 2018
Duties: Conducted individual therapy with undergraduate students; Administered and scored assessments; Wrote assessments reports; Conducted mental health intakes
Supervisor: Lisa Hamilton, Ph.D.

Practicum Student; Neuropsychology Group of West Virginia, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: August 2015 – March 2017
Duties: Administered outpatient neuropsychological assessment batteries to children, adolescents and adults; Scored assessments and wrote neuropsychological assessment reports
Supervisors: Martin Boone, Ph.D., Jason Chong, Psy.D., & Marissa Carey, Ph.D.

Practicum Student; Allegheny General Hospital – Department of Psychiatry, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Dates: August 2014 – May 2015
Duties: Administered inpatient neuropsychological assessment batteries to adults; Scored assessments and wrote neuropsychological assessment reports
Supervisor: Michael Franzen, Ph.D.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Faculty; West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: Summer 2016
Duties: Taught undergraduate courses in counseling; Assisted in the re-development of three courses for the Human Services minor program to ensure they meet Quality Matters standards.

Graduate Assistant; West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: Fall 2014 – Spring 2016
Duties: Taught undergraduate courses in counseling; Trained first-year graduate teaching assistants

TRAINING AND WORK-RELATED EXPERIENCE

Forensic Examiner Training; North Florida Evaluation and Treatment Center, Gainesville, Florida

Dates: October 3, 2018 – October 5, 2018
Presenter: Randy Otto, Ph.D.

Intern; Federal Bureau of Investigation, Clarksburg, West Virginia and Jacksonville, Florida

Dates: May 2014 – August 2019
Duties: Worked on a qualitative psychological research project; Wrote and edited internal and external communications; Updated training on handling phone calls from individuals with mental health issues

Graduate Assistant; West Virginia Assistive Technology System (WVATS) at Center for Excellence in Disabilities at West Virginia University

Dates: August 2012– May 2013
Duties: Assisted individuals with disabilities in borrowing assistive technology devices from assistive technology library; Updated resource guides for adults and children with disabilities in West Virginia

Intern; Olympia Center – Preston, Kingwood, West Virginia

Dates: January 2013 – May 2013
Duties: Worked with adolescents with substance abuse problems ranging in age from 12-18 years old. Facilitated group therapy sessions with male and female adolescents. Attended weekly interdisciplinary meetings to discuss client progress.

Intern; West Virginia Division of Rehabilitation Services, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: August 2012 – Dec 2012
Duties: Assisted individuals with disabilities establish and reach their vocational goals

I/DD Service Coordinator; Healthways, Inc., Weirton, West Virginia

Dates: January 2010 – August 2012
Duties: Provided case management to children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities for the Title XIX Waiver Program; Maintained a caseload of 20-30 clients; Managed client budgets, scheduled psychological assessments, conducted home visits and led interdisciplinary team meetings; Developed and updated client treatment plans; Co-chaired Family Support committee for the Northern Panhandle.

Intern; Monongalia County Victim/Witness Assistance Program, Morgantown, West Virginia

Dates: August 2008 – May 2009
Duties: Attended Magistrate and Circuit court cases; Corresponded with victims/witnesses of crimes to update them on court proceedings; Assisted victims of crimes with completing victim impact statements

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Dissertation

Topic: Psychological Trauma and Resilience of Police Officers Involved in an Ambush: An Exploratory Study
Chair: Jeffrey Daniels, Ph.D.

Law Enforcement Officers Killed & Assaulted (LEOKA) Ambush Study

Dates: August 2013 – May 2017
Duties: Research team member responsible for analyzing transcriptions of interviews conducted by other team members.
Supervisor: Jeffrey Daniels, Ph.D.

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

Teaff, E. (2016, October). Methodology and codebooks of police officer ambush study. Poster presented at the Fall 2016 West Virginia Psychological Association Conference, Roanoke, WV.

Teaff, E., & Latorre, C. (2016, April). Methods of studying police officer ambushes. Poster presented at the 2016 College of Education and Human Services Student Research Forum, Morgantown, WV.